

Archaeological Institute of America,
Toronto Society
The Joseph and Maria Shaw
Student Summer Travel Fellowship 2012

The Toronto Society of the Archaeological Institute of America is pleased to announce that it will be offering travel fellowships for students enrolled full-time in Toronto area universities. These grants will be for a sum of up to $500 for expenses related to travel to participate in a field school or excavation. The award is open to undergraduate and graduate students, but preference will be given to those traveling to their first field experience. Applications should include a completed copy of this form (2 pages), a copy of their transcripts, and one letter of support that includes a clear indication of how this field experience fits with the student's training, a statement of the student's merit and a disclosure of other forms of financial assistance.
